CHAS. P. DOE'S SON DIES SUDDENLY OF PTOMAINE POISONING

Enchiladas Thought to Be Cause of Death

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Two hours after eating of enchiladas that he had purchased from a vendor on Park street, Chester Harrison Doe, the 16-year-old son of Charles P. Doe, steamship man, died in terrible agony at the family residence, 1201 Park street, last evening.

Ptomaine is supposed to have caused his death, as he was in excellent health. Young Doe had been out with a party of friends in an automobile yesterday afternoon. Upon returning to town, Doe and his companions purchased the enchiladas and partook of them freely. Shortly after eating Doe complained of violent stomach pains. He became deathly pale and sick and his companions took him to the Alameda High School building, where an emetic was given the youth by Prof. Willis Minium. This appeared to relieve him for the time being, and he started home, but when he reached there he again became stricken and Dr. H. M. Pond was summoned. The patient died at 7 o'clock.

An autopsy will be held and the inquest will take place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Coroner C. L. Tisdale, when notified of the circumstances of the death, ordered the stock of the pedler confiscated. Tests will be made by City Chemist A. A. Cunningham to ascertain whether or not it was contaminated.

Young Doe was a student at the Mastic grammar school and was popular with his associates. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

CRUELLY BEATEN BY THUG IN FIGHT

Regains Consciousness in Time to Save His Life.

After a desperate encounter with a masked footpad at Franklin and Seventh streets last night, John Stenglitz, a former San Francisco attorney, sixty-five years of age, was robbed of $15 and a gold watch and left senseless on the street.

As he lay unconscious on the sidewalk, hot embers from a cigar he had been smoking fell on his clothes and set them afire. He regained consciousness to find himself on fire. He rolled on the ground and succeeded in putting out the flames, but had he remained unconscious he would have been burned to death.

The hold-up took place shortly before midnight. Stenglitz was on his way to his lodgings at Webster and Fifth streets, when the masked footpad jumped out at him from a doorway and swung a vicious blow at him with a heavy stick. Stenglitz grappled with his assailant, and in spite of his age, fought him off for a while, but his age told and the man felled him to the ground with a blow on the forehead.

Stenglitz made his way to the Receiving Hospital, where Assistant Steward Traverser dressed his wound, which was a bad cut on the forehead. The old man then reported the affair to the police. When he searched himself at the hospital, he found that his money was all gone, as well as his watch. The thief left a check for $20.

Stenglitz was formerly a well-known San Francisco attorney. At present he makes his living by acting as German interpreter.

Churchman's Plea Reduces Sentence

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The pleadings of Brother R. I. Leodius of the Franciscan Monastery were the means of reducing the sentence of William Cummings, who stole the silver candlesticks from St. Boniface Church several days ago, from six months to thirty days in the County Jail. Judge Shortall's court in this case could see no reason for dealing leniently with Cummings, who is said to be a desperate character, but listened to the plea of the brother and let him off with the light sentence.

State Department Cipher Is Stolen

BUCHAREST, March 12.—It was learned here today that a copy of the cipher of the American legation in Bucharest, used in private correspondence between Washington and the various American legations and embassies was stolen recently from the American legation here by a French employee who succeeded in escaping to Constantinople. It is understood that this is the second time that the American cipher has been obtained by strangers within the last few years. The previous occasion was at St. Petersburg, when spies secured photographic copies of the cipher from the American embassy.

Unions to Discuss Unfavorable Laws

NEW YORK, March 12.—Announcement of what is declared will be the most important conference of national labor leaders ever held was made yesterday by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. Over a hundred national and international unions, it is stated, will be represented at the meeting, which is said to be held in Washington on Wednesday of next week. Planning of new tactics on account of the many court decisions against the unions is said to be the subject for consideration.

DREAMS OF BURGLARS, SHOOTS IN HIS SLEEP AND KILLS HIS WIFE

Strange Story Told by the Husband

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Hugh Hollis, a treasury department clerk, who came here from Louisville, Ky., and served for a time as private secretary to the commissioner of internal revenue, shot and killed his wife early today. Hollis procured a revolver a day or two ago and practiced shooting it yesterday. About three o'clock in the morning his wife arose to attend their child and, as she returned to the bedside, Hollis awakened, pulled the revolver from beneath his pillow and fired, instantly killing her. Immediately he went to sleep again and knew nothing of the shooting until he was afterward awakened. He has always borne an excellent reputation and he declares he was dreaming of burglars.

KILLED WHEN HE TURNS ON ELECTRIC LIGHT IN HOUSE

Current Is Short Circuited by a Car

SEATTLE, Wash., March 12.—W. D. Abrams, credit man of the National Grocery Company, was killed by electricity in his home last night. A storm was in progress and a street car became short-circuited in front of his house. After standing at the window with his wife watching the electrical display for a moment he turned on the electric lights with one hand and with the other reached for the tea kettle, which was on the kitchen stove. As he touched the kettle he was stricken dead. He remained standing with his arms outstretched and the fingers of one hand were burned away by the current, which seems to have come from the trolley wire.

BANKER WALSH SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IN PRISON

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, March 12.—John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National Bank of this city, who was convicted of illegal use of the funds of the institution, was today denied a new trial by Judge Anderson in the United States District Court and sentenced to serve five years in the Federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth.

When the new trial was refused the attorneys for the defense entered a motion in arrest of judgment, but Judge Anderson overruled the motion and said:

"In my opinion no reasonable man could hear the evidence in this case and have any doubt that the defendant intended to do the things that are charged against him in the indictment. For more than thirty years, I have taken part in legal proceedings as a lawyer and I am sure it is my deliberate conviction that a more reckless, utter disregard of law has never been shown in any case within my experience."

Judge Anderson, in denying the motion for a new trial, spoke without notes, his decision requiring about one hour in delivery. He first took up the question of the alleged non-assent to the verdict by Juror Palmer declaring:

"It cannot be said that Palmer dissented from the verdict. If it had appeared to counsel for the defendant that he did not do so, they should either have asked that the jury be sent back for further deliberation or that it be discharged. No such request was made and the court is justified in saying that counsel took, at that time, the same view as was held by the court and that was that the verdict was regular."

The court declared that charges of misconduct on the part of the jury were not founded on fact.

"It is claimed by the defense," continued the judge, "that while in a variety theater, one of the jurors in this trial removed the garter of an actress. What that has to do with this case, I cannot imagine, and why dignified counsel should bring it into this case is beyond my comprehension. It has no logical or possible relation to the deliberations of the jury."

FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE SURRENDER TO THE POLICE

Filled with remorse and wearied of the mental strain of being a fugitive from justice, Charles M. Moffatt and Charles G. Adams, both wanted in Los Angeles on charges of forgery, surrendered themselves at the city prison last night and will be sent South for trial as soon as an affidavit is procured from the Southern city. Moffatt, who is a deserter from Fort Rosecrans, where he was attached to the coast artillery, was wanted for the forgery of a check for $125 drawn on the Union Trust Company of San Francisco and cashed with the First National Bank of Los Angeles. The warrant for his arrest had been sworn to by E. J. Botkin of the Los Angeles Independent, he having been prevailed upon to endorse the signature of Moffatt.

Adams is accused of having passed a number of checks for small amounts on the Randall Graphite Sheet Lubricating Company of 729 South Broadway, Los Angeles. The crimes were committed some weeks ago.

A peculiar feature of the case is that the men were in no way connected in their crimes; that they were both wanted in the same city for similar offenses and that they had both fled at the same time of being fugitives from justice and had given themselves up to the authorities on the same day.

SCORES PRESIDENT AS NATION'S MENACE

Declares His "Reckless Misconduct" Accounts for Recent Business Flurry.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Denunciation was heaped today upon President Roosevelt in the House by Representative Willett of New York. Willett insisted that the distressing effects of the panic of 1907 were still felt.

"There seems to be," he said, "a conspiracy of silence on the part of the Republican members of the House on the subject of the panic." Those members he declared were afraid to attack the President for fear of his "big stick." The President, he said, was "reaping the reward of his own reckless misconduct."

He referred to "the imperialistic methods" of the President as evidence by "the un-American discharge of whole companies of American soldiers without trial, without proof of guilt" and said it sounded "more like the edict of an African chieftain or Russian despot than the command of an American President."

Talks About Panic.

Willett charged that Roosevelt "has done more than all other Presidents and all other public men in the history of the country to shake the confidence of the people in our form of government, and has done more than any other man in our nation's history to destroy legitimate business, to shatter confidence among the people and bring utter panic into every counting room, factory, shop, office and home in the land, and has exhibited a greater degree of self-congratulation and egotism, which are natural results of power and flattery, than any President that has occupied the White House."

"Nevertheless," he said, "the claron tongues of the great Republican party are silent; the people's rights may be trampled upon, but party interests must be protected."

Must Be Challenged.

He characterized the President as "that great central deity" and said that if the usurpations of the President passed unchallenged by the people they would soon create the force of precedent.

"Now is the time," he exclaimed, "and we are the people to watch with jealousy such beginnings, indignantly to attack them and if possible prevent them."

"In conclusion," he said, "Remove the cause of the unrest, silence the claron tongues, and the panic will be restored in the White House and quiet will be restored."

CHIEF BIGGY ESCAPES IN CONTEMPT CASE ON TECHNICALITY

Spreckels Jumps Into Proceedings

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Judge Buck in the Superior Court decided there was an informality in the order issued to Chief of Police Biggy to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in refusing to make a deposition before Notary Gus Hartman in the case of Ruef vs. Heney, Spreckels, Dunne, Burns et al. He held that the papers did not show that on the 6th of this month Gus Hartman was a notary. The case was dismissed.

Attorney Murphy, for Ruef, says a new order will be asked for.

At the opening of the proceedings this afternoon Attorney Murphy said that it was customary for the court to take notice of the seals of notaries public when attached to papers. Hartman, Murphy contended, had stamped his certificate attached to the papers in the case with his notarial seal, showing that at the time he did the stamping he had a notarial seal and that he must have been a notary at the time.

Judge Buck said he had no doubt along the line Mr. Murphy was proceeding, but there was a doubt in his mind that there was a showing that on the 6th of this month and at all times during the present proceedings Hartman was a notary.

Murphy said so long as the court felt that way he would be pleased to start proceedings anew. Judge Buck said that would please him because he was unwilling, in the event of the case going to the Superior Court, to have it there disclosed that there was any informality in the papers.

"I understand," said Wheeler, "that your honor does not rule that there are not other deficiencies in the proceedings."

"At this time," said the court, "I am passing only on the showing made as to the notaryship of Mr. Hartman. The case is dismissed."

Mr. Murphy stated to THE TRIBUNE correspondent that he prepared to get out another order to compel Biggy to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. He had not decided, however, whether he would include Heney, Langdon, Burns and Spreckels with Biggy in the order, although all of these, like Biggy, disregarded subpoenas in the Ruef case.

The showing made by Spreckels through Attorney Wheeler this morning, was a surprise to the people who have paid attention to the case from the time of its inception. They could not understand why, when proceedings in contempt were about to be prosecuted, Spreckels should criticize the proceeding because he had not been cited to appear.

It may be stated that it was the purpose of Murphy to have brought Biggy and Dunne into court at the same time, as it was later to give Spreckels and the others who pretend to be beyond the reach of the courts, a chance to show upon what requirements of the law they rely.

Judge Buck, however, denied to grant an order for more, than one defendant at a time and under that ruling Spreckels will be required to bide his time.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—"I shall have to rule against you on that proposition," said Judge Buck in the Superior Court this morning in the case of Chief Biggy, who had been cited to appear to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court in failing to appear before Notary Hartman to give testimony in the case of Ruef against Biggy, Spreckels, Heney, Burns and others of the alleged graft prosecution, for the recovery of money paid out by Ruef for board while he was in charge of Biggy on Filmore street.

The words were addressed to Attorney Charles S. Wheeler, who was thus indirectly at least projected into the role of a graft prosecutor as attorney for Rudolph Spreckels, who has been supplying the finances for the crusade.

Notwithstanding that Biggy was the only person who had been cited to appear, and that Biggy's attorney was in attendance, Wheeler took the floor and opposed the contempt proceedings on the ground that they were improper for the reason that his client, Rudolph Spreckels, was one of the defendants in the case above mentioned and as such was entitled to be notified in the premises as well as Biggy.

It was then that Judge Buck made the statement that he would have to rule against Mr. Wheeler's contention as also that he did not believe in the principles in the Burns case. Just then Attorney Joseph Wheeler, representing Biggy, asked permission to file a demurrer. Attorney Murphy, who appeared for Ruef, and

HUSBAND AND WIFE "WANTED" IN MANY CITIES

Pair of Clever Forgers, Police Believe, Now in Custody in S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—From all parts of the United States come requests to the local police department to hold H. Mortimer Wilson, alias H. M. Mortimer, alias George H. Longworth, who was arrested, together with his wife, at the St. Francis Hotel yesterday afternoon by Detective Sergeants Ryan and O'Dea after he had endeavored to pass a $1000 check, to which the signature of Curtis H. Guild, Governor of Massachusetts, was forged, on the auditor of the St. Francis Hotel.

In a statement made this morning to the detectives, the woman says that she was formerly the wife of a Baptist minister, whom she had been led to divorce through the influence of her brother. She stoutly maintains that she will stand by Wilson, and states that she believes firmly in his innocence.

Minister's Divorced Wife.

"I am the former wife of a Baptist minister named Webb," she said today. "He has a church office in Grand Rapids of Baltimore. I have a child, a little girl 7 years old, who is now with my mother. My mother was a stern parent, and was the principal cause of my securing a divorce from Dr. Webb. I married Mortimer when I hardly knew him, but I still love him and still believe there has been an awful mistake."

"My maiden name is Sargent. My brother is Calvin Sargent, a rancher of Sunnyside, Washington."

Among the requests received by the police today was one from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where Wilson is wanted for forgery. The letter refers to both the man and the woman, and states that she claims to have a rich uncle, a governor, in the east. The letter gives a description which exactly fits both of those arrested and gives as a specific charge the effort of Wilson to pass a forged check for $500.

Eluded Detectives.

It develops from the letter that the pair were on their way to Japan and have just eluded detectives in every city along the route who have been on the lookout for them.

In Chicago they had only an hour's start ahead of the Central office men who arrived at the railroad station shortly after they had left.

The following telegram was received today from Philadelphia: "Philadelphia, Penna., March 12.—Hold Mortimer Wilson and wife. Will send officers with requisition papers for them. Wanted here for obtaining $300 from St. James Hotel and other checks. Answer. (Signed) 'Captain of Detectives.'"

It has evidently been the custom of the pair in every city which they visited to obtain funds by means of spurious checks. They have always put up, at the best hotels and lived in grand style. The local police have placed no charge against them, and they will probably be sent east to the city which has the best case against them.

BURGLARS STEAL GLOVES WORTH $1000

Break Into Factory With Jimmy and Try to Open Safe.

BERKELEY March 13.—Burglars broke into the factory of the Pacific Glove Company at Third and Gilman streets West Berkeley some time early this morning and carried off stock in the shape of fancy gloves to the value of nearly $1000.

There were evidently two or more men at the job who made use of a horse and wagon to carry away their plunder. They effected an entrance through the office window by the use of a jimmy. Once inside one of the men opened the door leading to the warehouse and, raising a window, passed the goods out through the windows where his companions loaded them on the wagon.

The drawers in the office were rifled and about $10 in stamps stolen.

An attempt was made to open the big safe but they were evidently disturbed in the job, as they gave it up after breaking two tumblers.

The robbery was discovered this morning when the men started to go to work. Detectives say the job was the work of amateurs.

SPRECKELS JUMPS INTO THE CASE

Hartman objected. The court said he did not think that an answer could be filed at that time although he was anxious to have some views expressed on that other side. Webb then argued that the complaint in the case was defective because Hartman did not show that on the 6th of last March he was a notary public. "Is that a fact, Mr. Murphy?" asked Judge Buck.

Admits the Omission. Murphy answered that that was the case although the certificate of Notary Hartman made the latter an officer of the court. "The papers in the case," Murphy added, contained the affidavit of the order of the court to take the affidavit and the certificate of Hartman. In connection with the certificate Hartman said he had also signed Hartman's affidavit, which latter he declared, was not at all necessary. In the Burns case the court had decided that proceedings before a notary were proceedings before a court, and that it could not be expected that proceedings in every case could be held for the purpose of showing that this man or that man was or was not a notary. Attorney Wheeler held that it was absolutely necessary to show that Hartman was a notary on March 6 for the reason that Hartman's name had not been mentioned in the order of Judge Sturtevant who had ordered the deposition. Judge Buck was inclined to the belief that the papers in the case were not sufficient.

"The only doubt I have," he said, "is that it does not appear in any part of these papers except in the certificate of Mr. Hartman that on the 6th of March of this year he was a notary-public."

"It does appear," said Murphy. "When?" inquired the court, after looking over the papers for some time.

Appears in Subpoena.

"It appears," replied Murphy, "in the subpoena of the clerk of the court who directed Biggy to appear before Notary Hartman in order to give his deposition. There is a presumption of law that the clerk of this court performed his duty. There is a presumption of law also that he would not have ordered Biggy to appear before a man who is not a notary. You must, your honor, sit here from time to time in passing upon motions and cases with the presumption that all the officers of the court have performed their respective duties. We are not here to see if Mr. Hartman is a notary because the papers as I hold prove that we are here to determine whether Biggy refused to obey the subpoena issued under the order of this court."

"I will let the matter stand over until this afternoon at 2 o'clock so that if you gentlemen have any authorities which you would like to cite you will be able to produce them," said the judge. Chief Biggy was present at the opening of the court but was excused from attendance during the proceedings so that he might be able to attend to his professional duties.

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO March 13.—Ignorance of the difference between coal oil and gasoline on the part of Melicia Mulerevitz of 186 Teddy avenue caused an explosion this morning which will probably cost the woman her life as her body was badly burned.

The woman tried to start the fire with gasoline, mistaking it for coal oil. There was a loud explosion the stove was wrecked and the blazing oil enveloped the woman's clothing. Neighbors rushed to her assistance and put the fire out and she was removed to the Potrero hospital.

BERKELEY, March 13.—A new departure of the summer session at the University this year will be the addition of a course in manual training under the direction of Robert J. It is probable the University authorities will make application to the school board to hold the classes in one of the rooms of the local school department where the children are now instructed instead of fitting up a separate apartment on the campus. This will be the first time in the history of the State University that official cognizance has been taken of the need of manual instruction as a part of the curriculum of the modern school teacher.

IS ACCUSED OF SELLING POISON IN DRUG STORE

State Board of Pharmacy Complain Because Man Had No License

ALAMEDA March 13.—A M. Prosser who conducts a drug store at the corner of Park street and Santa Clara avenue and another at Chestnut street station has been arrested on two complaints sworn to by G. D. Pratt representing the State Board of Pharmacy. Prosser is accused of having sold poison in his stores at times when no licensed pharmacist was present. Prosser is at liberty on $20 bail on each count against him. He is to appear before City Justice R. B. Tappan Saturday.

W. J. Ryan a clerk employed by Prosser was arrested on a similar charge and a warrant is out for the arrest of a young lady clerk who Pratt alleges also violated the law which prohibits an unlicensed pharmacist from selling poisons in a drug store.

He stated to the justice that it was a joke and wanted his preliminary examination as soon as possible. Judge Quinn set the examination for Monday morning.

To try one prisoner a deaf and dumb man who pleaded guilty, twenty-six justices, nineteen grand jurors and thirty-two common jurors were summoned at Carnation Quarter sessions many of them having to travel a long distance by train.

A Fortune in Smoke

You know "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," who has been figuring in the bully series of stories in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST. J. Rufus Wallingford is the greatest character of the under-world since Raffles, and he operates in a higher plane. But in this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST J. Rufus gets his. He joins the most extensive club in the world, "The Down and Out Club."

The game looked good to start with. Meers, himself, told him, "You're an honor to the family. I didn't suppose there were many more games left, but you've sprung a new one, and it's a peach."

But life turns yellow to J. Rufus, and even his wife has to admit that "upon thistles grow no roses." The story is called a "Fortune in Smoke." It makes a hit with us, and it will with you.

Another story in this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST is "The White Light of Publicity," by Charles Belmont Davis, in which the hero asserts that "Women do not commit suicide," and toward the end, although he does not assert it, he seems on the point of committing matrimony.

$50,000 people find it worth while to buy THE SATURDAY EVENING POST each week. Read this week's issue, and you will see why.

With an Oakland girl to the rescue, the performance of Mary Shaw was made possible last night. Instead of "Mrs. Warren's Profession," the Ibsen tragedy, "Ghosts," was given, the entire change being necessitated because of the sudden illness of Miss Pettes. For a time it was thought the performance would have to be cancelled, but Miss Sankey, of the Blauplay players at the Liberty, consented to read the part of Regina, and there was a grateful company and a pleased audience.

Miss Pettes, who is the only other woman in the Shaw company, has been on the verge of a nervous attack for some time and just before the curtain was to be raised last night she collapsed in her dressing room, and a physician who was called in forbade her going on.

Announcement of this was made from the stage, as well as the announcement of the change of bill and the privilege given any who desired to exchange their tickets. The offer was accepted by fully one hundred people.

Miss Sankey Praised.

Miss Sankey read her lines in a most creditable manner and was given a deserved applause. Even the company showed their appreciation of her work by unusually warm handclaps and admiring glances during the time the whole company was called at the end of the first act.

Miss Pettes, it was announced, would continue in her characters the remainder of the engagement, which is tonight, Saturday afternoon and evening.

The art of Mary Shaw has no better vehicle than in the role of Mrs. Alving in "Ghosts." As to the play it has been discussed, been praised and condemned, and is still the bone of contention among critics. It is not a healthy play even if it is full of bright sayings, quaint and serious philosophy. Perhaps a moral is taught, but even this is questionable. The unbarred family skeletons are not pregnant with good. It cannot be claimed for it either that such things do good like the knife of a surgeon, which hurts as it heals.

Displays Her Art.

But the play is a vehicle for the art of Mary Shaw, which is far greater in this play in many ways than any of the other plays in her repertoire. The mother instinct and the selfishness even to a sacrifice of honor or life is best shown and naturally interpreted. Her struggles with duty which she terms cowardice are painful and appealing. She brings to its full power the art which she declares in protesting against irregularities of affection styled living in "law and order" that they "cause all the trouble in the world." Again in the scene where she is reprehended for forsaking "ideals" when she declares that "truth" is the proper idea. Pathetically she declares that "old ideas have no vitality but cling to us," and that "truth" is the light and the cowardice "in defect in existence, mental and otherwise."

Very clever work was done by Mr. Aymer as Oswald Alving, the artist son, who discovers that the cause of his loss of power and probable insanity is because his system was worn eaten from birth. He gives a splendid reading in the scene where he discovers that "the father's sins" are visited upon him—the derelictness of a parent whom he has always honored. It was artistically a triumph for all taking part. Mr. Pratt as Pastor Mandes and Mr. Cahill as Jacob Engstrand were in harmony with their tasks and achieved equal triumphs with the others.

ST. VITUS' DANCE

Proof of the Remarkable Power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in This Severe Nervous Disorder.

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured obstinate cases of St. Vitus' dance, is the best evidence that they will cure all lesser nervous disorders. Here is evidence that will stand thorough investigation. Mrs. James Wilkie, of 701 Spruce street, Cherokee, Iowa, says:

"I was of a very nervous temperament even when a child. As I grew to girlhood, more and more of the work in our family fell to me. At the same time I tried to keep up my studies in school. The strain was too great and at the age of fourteen I had to leave school, because of the run-down and nervous condition I was in. I gradually grew worse, becoming extremely irritable and suffering terribly from melancholy. It was first noticed that I had St. Vitus' dance, when I began to lose control of the muscles of my face. The disease soon spread all over my body and my head and arms seemed to tremble constantly."

"I was in this condition for about a year and dwindled away to almost nothing. Finally I became so weak that I had to stay in bed all the time. Up to this time I had been under the care of two doctors and as I became no better gave up their medicine. As I had been in bed about two months, my father heard about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from an old friend. He bought some at once and I started using them, not expecting much benefit. I noticed very soon that the pills were helping me and that I could sleep better. We all thought this so wonderful that I was encouraged to give them a good trial. I was soon able to sleep like a log and my appetite became good."

"I was sick altogether about one and one-half years and when I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I weighed less than 85 pounds. I gained weight rapidly, while taking the pills and weighed 117 pounds when I stopped using them. I was completely cured and have never taken medicine for my nerves since. I feel that I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

They are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

THE LOCKHARDT SISTERS IN "THE BURGOMASTER."

DAUGHTERS OF THIS CITY TO APPEAR HERE IN "BURGOMASTER"

Local theater-goers are taking much interest in the coming engagement of Pixley & Lunders' musical opera, "The Burgomaster," at the Macdonough theater on March 18 to 22, owing to the fact that the Misses Elffe and Phienie Lund, known on the stage as the Lockhardt sisters, two well known Oakland girls, are in the cast. They are sisters to Pearl Lund, who will be remembered as a bright little star in Oakland and San Francisco several years ago.

Elffe was born in Oakland while Phienie claims Alameda as her birthplace. "The Burgomaster" is a good musical comedy for many reasons. Frank Pixley's lyrics are daintily adaptable to melody and Gus Lunders' music has been fitted tailor-wise to the words.

Manager Cullen has sent an excellent company, headed by Gus Weinberg and Ruth White.

80 IN MUSICAL COMEDY

There is a rare treat in store for all who witness the performance of "Coming Thru the Rye" at the Macdonough March 13, 15 and 17. This musical comedy is one of the conspicuously great successes of the times.

It will be presented here with the great original company of eighty comedians, singers and dancers, and with all of the superb scenery and costumes which have made it among the greatest of recent American productions. "Coming Thru the Rye" is described as an uproariously funny show.

WANT INVESTIGATION OF D. AND H. RAILROAD STOCK

Ask Inquiry Into Cause of Impairment.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 13.—Application was made to the public service commission, second district, today by attorneys for Hyman & Zoon of Amsterdam, Holland, and John T. Keegan of Milwaukee, to investigate the Delaware and Hudson railroad with reference to the question of impairment of the company stock. It is further asked that the commission interfere in the suit of Hyman and Zoon against the Delaware and Hudson and take such further proceedings as are necessary to prevent the payment of the contemplated dividend of 9 per cent.

The stock exchange firm of Probst, Wetzelar & Company, the New York correspondents of Hyman & Zoon of Amsterdam, Holland, later issued a statement in which they say they have been authorized by that firm to state that Hyman & Zoon never consented to the use of its name in requesting an injunction of payment of Delaware and Hudson dividends in a suit which has been instituted at Norwich, New York.

EUGENICS SOCIETY TO HEAR LECTURES

The California State Eugenics Association will meet in California Hall, 1013 Clay street, Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Salmon and Prof. Stowe will lecture on the subject, "Legitimate Eugenics." Dr. H. W. Anderson, the president, will speak also. The annual election of officers will be held and other business transacted.

The California State Eugenics Association is the parent organization on the Pacific Coast and is in no sense connected with any astrological or fatal societies calling themselves eugenics bodies.

The meeting is free to the public.

DELLA FOX.

DELLA FOX TO BE AT ORPHEUM

Great Favorite of Other Days to Return With Old-Time Songs.

Della Fox is coming. She will be at the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday afternoon. Her name adorns the bill boards of the town, and is in evidence wherever the list of coming stars at the Orpheum is spread out.

Della Fox is a beautiful woman and a great artist. In other years she starred at the head of her own comic opera companies. She was the principal figure in "Wang" when that musical comedy affair was a new thing under the sun. She then sang "A Pretty Girl—A Summer's Night" and made that bit of melody famous. She still sings the song, and it will be included in her repertoire at the Orpheum next Sunday.

Dons Male Attire.

The "chappies" in other days used to rave over the attractive figure Della Fox made in male costume, and the same skill at conceiving male habits and wearing them is in evidence when Della Fox plays. She will make a number of changes in costume at the Orpheum on Sunday and part of her equipment will be a natty suit of brown tweeds in which she is, according to the critics all over the land, a most adorable figure.

There will be a big reception for the little star when she comes forth on the stage of the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday, for she has not been seen here for nearly a decade.

1 DEAD; 2 HURT BY LONG FALLS

Workmen Precipitated From High Buildings in S. F. Sustain Terrible Injuries.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—One man was killed, another fatally injured and a third badly hurt by falling from buildings in various parts of the city within the short space of half an hour this morning.

At 10:05 o'clock John Keane, a brick mason living at 236 Oak street, fell from the fourth floor of the building in course of construction at Eddy and Leavenworth streets and was fatally injured. Keane, together with Jerome Collins, was working on a painter's scaffold, cleaning the brick work. The rope on Keane's end of the scaffold broke, and he was precipitated to the street. Collins had the presence of mind to grasp the rope on his side and saved himself. He was left hanging in the air and had to be rescued by his companions. It was found at the hospital that Keane had fallen on his left side, breaking his arm and leg, crushing his ribs and injuring himself internally.

At 10:15 o'clock George Murrison, a carpenter employed on the Jeweler's building, Grand avenue and Post street, at work on the second floor, fell, striking a girder, smashing four ribs. He was treated at the central emergency hospital.

At 10:22 Ernest Bergman, an iron worker employed on the eighth floor of the Emporium building, lost his footing while on an iron joist and plunged through an old shaft to the basement below, striking on the framework at the side in his descent. He was instantly

DEFENDANTS IN BANK SUIT SUSTAINED

Investigation of D. Edward Collins' Loans to Be Continued.

Because all the creditors of the California Bank were not joined in the action, Judge Harris today sustained the demurrer of the defendants in the suit brought by certain depositors and stockholders of the bank against Directors John W. Phillips, J. B. Richardson, Benjamin Smith and J. P. Taylor. The demurrer was grounded chiefly on the contention that all, and not only a few of the creditors should be made plaintiffs.

The suit was brought by S. S. Austin, J. Y. Miller, James Moir, James Rutherford, Kato Keay and John Orchison, who alleged that money of the bank amounting to $284,000 had been misappropriated and embezzled by being loaned by D. Edward Collins, former president of the bank, on no security, or on security that was worthless.

He was killed, his body being battered and bruised by contact with obstacles in his descent. Bergman lived at 508 Edna street.

ages 7 to 14

A lucky purchase of woollens at a ridiculously low price enabled us to make up these suits so we can sell them to you at this price.

There are only two patterns in the purchase—a very pretty gray mixture and a fancy mixed dark nut brown. The suits are made up in a skillful manner according to that new and favored Buddy Tucker style; they would prove very fine values at $5 and we offer them at our three stores at $2.95.

That word "Exclusive"

If the above suit were shown in an "exclusive" shop you would see one or two styles instead of many and they would call them "exclusive" because they had but few to show. Instead of paying S. N. Wood & Co.'s price of $10 you would have to pay an "exclusive" price, perhaps as high as twenty.

Therefore you see the difference between the "exclusive" clothing and S. N. Wood & Co.'s is a matter of price and variety which after all affects your pocketbook in a very material manner.

ACTORS MUSTN'T PORTRAY JOHN D. AND CARNEGIE

ANDREW CARNEGIE (TO LEFT) AND JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, REAR-ADMIRALS OF INDUSTRY, WHOSE EPAULETS OF OFFICE WILL BE RESPECTED IN CHICAGO HEREAFTER.

Are Protected From Slurring Imitations

CHICAGO, March 13.—John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie and other rear-adjutants of industry will have their epaulets of office respected hereafter in Chicago vaudeville theaters. Mayor Russe has decided that slurring imitations of such men as Rockefeller and Carnegie should be stopped.

In order to reduce to a minimum the repeated criticism of the men of wealth by the anarchistic element. Accordingly a quiet "tip" has gone out, through the offices of the police department, to the managers of vaudeville houses, that it would be well to stop the class of vaudeville acts suggested.

BIG CONSPIRACY TO DOWN PROSECUTORS, CRIES HENEY

More Suits to Follow, States Attorney

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Francis J. Heney spoke in Berkeley last night to members of the League of the Republic. In the call today, which is the Special

Heney organ, he is reported to have said: "I have not come here tonight to answer any charges made against the graft prosecution either by THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE or Town Talk or other cheap, criminal weeklies, or to answer the charges of the San Francisco Chronicle, which sold itself to the Home telephone company for $10,000, or the San Francisco Examiner, which would sell itself any time for a mere $500."

Says They Are Attacked. "Both Mr. Spreckles and myself have been attacked by those scurrilous sheets for our public spiritedness in fighting graft and corruption in San Francisco. These dailies and scurrilous weeklies say that we are adding the city for the money there is in it. To this end we are attacked by the papers which should serve for the education of the masses."

"You see in A. Matt a mean contemptible way of obscuring the character of honorable men and an insinuating, cowardly way of libeling them. The readers of such papers are daily fed poison and get it into their system through such vicious means."

"At one time all the newspapers were on the side of the prosecution as some are now against it. The Chronicle can turn a back somersault quicker than any paper in the United States. First we read a scathing denunciation of the opinion of the court of appeal; then the wind veers around so that a bit of shingling hits De Young and we have a fine exhibition of front somersault."

Claims Gigantic Conspiracy. "But as far as De Young is concerned I have evidence that he sold the paper to the Home telephone company for $10,000, and I can prove it. A gigantic conspiracy of the public service corporations has been formed in San Francisco with the banks included to defraud the ends of the prosecution and overwhelm us."

"One step taken in this conspiracy was that of having two rabbis perjure themselves with the end in view that we would be afraid to answer them. We are not afraid and will take up the trials of the rabbis, Riet, Schmitz and Calhoun. The libelous papers will be answered in time, and I intend to sue and prosecute them criminally, for the Examiner and Chronicle have been lying every day and THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE twice a day and the weeklies every week."

JAPS WILL COLONIZE KOREA WITH PEASANTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.—According to mail advices received in Washington from the Orient, Japanese peasants in large numbers with their families are to be sent yearly to Korea. The statement is made that the proposed Japanese-Korea colonial company will send about 40,000 peasants, accompanied by their families, to Korea every year.

It is proposed that the Japanese military forces shall eventually settle on the land for colonizing purposes. Small hypothetical banks will be established at three or four suitable places in order to give the peasantry the necessary financial assistance.

GROWING VERY RAPIDLY

Sunset Magazine, for April, will be entitled "Two Years After" and will be devoted to the marvelous progress made by San Francisco since the disaster of April, 1906. Sunset's publishers predict even greater sales this year, and will put out an edition of 125,000 copies. The percentage of increase in circulation during 1907, over the year previous, was 38.6 per cent.

Not a cheap, small, undesirable lot, but a big, double lot, fifty feet front by one hundred and twenty feet deep, in the most alluring section of the entire beautiful Berkeley District, worth today far more than the selling price, which run from $500 to $1,500 per double lot.

In installments to suit you.

You'll never in the world, until you have seen it, believe how perfect this ideal residence property is; you'll never know how marvellously beautiful is its outlook, commanding, as it does, the beautiful cove and hills to the East and North, the peaceful prospect of Berkeley's most delightful homes to the South, and a matchless view of the bay, including Sausalito, Tamalpais, the Golden Gate, Alcatraz, San Francisco and Goat Island on the West.

RAPID TRANSIT ADVANTAGES.

The Oakland Traction Company's cars run into the very center of the tract—the Key Route's terminal is to be at the heart of the property, and the Southern Pacific already has its right of way into the main artery of that most beautiful section of the West's grandest educational center, which bears the charming name of Northbrae.

NO TAXES—NO INTEREST—NO ASSESSMENTS

Until 1910 there will be no taxes nor interest, and there can never be any assessments for the magnificent system of improvements we are NOW installing at enormous expense.

ONE HUNDRED-FOOT STREETS

Picture to yourself a lovely, rolling tract of land, sloping upward to the rugged slopes behind in charming grades—pierced by a system of roadways a hundred feet, eighty feet, seventy feet wide, macadamized with deep, permanent roadways, finished with cement gutters and curbs and edged with substantial stone walks—bordered with trees set out at fifty-foot intervals.

SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS

At street corners are massive, ornamental stone pillars bearing street names, while sewers and water are provided for in the thorough, permanent manner peculiar to Berkeley. We're so anxious to see new, substantial homes springing up all over the tract that

We will give $500, gold coin, to the lot buyer at this opening sale who first lets a contract and begins the work of building a home.

Mind, this is not a price reduction, not a credit on future payments, but an actual premium in HARD CASH to the first of this week's buyers who builds, whether he has paid twenty-five dollars or the full lot price.

And this is not all—not by any means. To make assurance doubly sure, safeguard the anxious buyer who is seeking to build and own a home of his own, we are adding an extremely liberal

FREE LIFE INSURANCE

Provision for the buyers' benefit, which makes it impossible to lose through death before the property is paid for. More than this, the contract we offer is so elastic and liberal that no one can or will be squeezed out of his or her savings should misfortune come and prevent a literal fulfillment of all its terms.

BEAUTIFUL HOMES

We are doing all this in order that Northbrae may be a suburb of beautiful, homelike homes—not a tract of unoccupied land held for investment purposes by a few speculators who are shrewd enough to realize that the city's best growth MUST move this way—has moved in this direction—is now unfolding this tract.

BERKELEY ADVANTAGES

Enumerate them briefly to yourself. Berkeley is the seat of the University of California; the home of a public school system of unusual excellence; is NOW the home city for forty thousand of the broadest, best and most cultured of California's citizens. There are no saloons, no vice-breeding centers, no drawbacks to the rearing of boys and girls into the highest types of manhood and womanhood.

In this favored section the damp, chilly fogs, and the raw, penetrating winds, which are so trying in San Francisco, seldom come.

'TIS WARMER IN WINTER—COOLER IN SUMMER

More pleasant at every season than any other section of this State—noted the world over for the magnificent climate. The clear, exhilarating air, the pure sparkling water, the perfect drainage, give Berkeley a minimum death and sickness rate.

NO PLAGUE GERMS

In fact, Berkeley—Northbrae, if you please—is THE ideal home spot—one which will instantly appeal to every man or woman who values home health, home happiness, clean citizenship and the best in civic and private life.

COME AND SEE IT

Don't take our word for all this—take advantage of the first beautiful day—and see it for yourself. You'll say we have far understated the facts—you'll find yourself involuntarily picking out the delightful views from this lot and that, planning for a home where you may have ever before you the inspiration of one of nature's choicest bits of scenery.

SATURDAY, 2 P. M.

The sale begins at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 14, and continues every day, every week, until Northbrae is filled with homes, and for weeks to come we shall continue that cash offer to home builders.

HOW TO GET THERE

From San Francisco take either the Key Route or Southern Pacific to Berkeley and take the street cars right to the heart of the tract at our tract office.

From Oakland take either the Traction Company's cars or the Southern Pacific trains to Berkeley, and on to the tract, or stop at our main office at the Berkeley terminus of the Oakland cars and the Southern Pacific and Key Route trains, and ride from there to the tract office in our automobiles.

A permanent ten-minute service is now being given on the Grove-street line to the heart of the property, connecting with all Southern Pacific and Key Route trains and transferring to the entire Oakland Traction Company system.

What Ruef Is Being Prosecuted For

Amid the mass of contradiction and recrimination one indisputable and undisputed fact stands forth, illuminating the entire procedure in the so-called graft prosecution, and furnishing a fixed basis for conclusion.

Ruef holds a written contract of immunity for all offenses at present charged or may hereafter be charged against him in connection with the administration of public affairs in San Francisco, indictment 305, to which Ruef pleaded guilty while proclaiming his innocence, alone excepted. That indictment is no longer a factor in the case because it had been declared invalid and the plea to it necessarily void by the Appellate Court at the time the prosecution undertook to cancel and withdraw the grant of immunity. It was a moral certainty also that the Supreme Court would affirm the decision of the Appellate Court. Hence Ruef's written contract signed by Heney and Langdon is a grant of complete immunity for all offenses, including indictments that may hereafter be found in the French restaurant cases.

Heney, Langdon and Burns say they revoked the contract of immunity because Ruef refused to carry out the conditions set forth in the document. The only condition was that Ruef was to tell the truth, the whole truth, whenever called upon to do so. It is not pertinent here to inquire whether one party to a contract can cancel it at will without presenting positive and conclusive proof that the party of the second part has violated its terms. It suffices that Ruef says he has complied with the terms of his contract and has been ready at all times to continue compliance with them.

Now what was it that Ruef did not do and has refused to do? What has he done to violate his contract, as Heney alleges?

Ruef has refused to testify to a state of facts which he has repeatedly and continuously declared to Heney, Burns and Langdon to be false. He has steadfastly insisted that to testify to such things would be to commit perjury and inflict infamous wrong on innocent men.

He declares under oath that he has told the truth. Heney, Burns and Langdon say he has been telling them lies.

But Ruef alone knows the facts. Heney and Burns only presume and infer them. For nine months they have kept Ruef a prisoner and worked upon him with every device of threat, intimidation, promise and persuasion that ingenuity and malice could devise to get him to change his story and measure up to the demands of the prosecution, as the estimable Gallagher has done. Having exhausted every recourse at their command to extort from him what he declares to be perjury they suddenly, without notice or giving him the slightest opportunity to prepare his defense and adjust himself to his new position, abrogate his grant of immunity and attempt to rush him to immediate trial.

Had Ruef altered his story to fit the demands of the prosecution and have sworn away the liberties and reputations of men he declares to be innocent he could be walking the streets today, in company with the incomparable Gallagher, a free man. By the 31st of December last every charge against him would have been dismissed and swept away. He never would have darkened the door of the county jail. He would now be enjoying the favor and protection of the prosecution as well as his liberty entirely free from harassment or fear of future trouble.

But he elected to stand by what he has all along asserted to be the truth. He has continued to tell Heney, Burns & Co. that he would rather go to jail himself than burden his soul with perjury and consign innocent men to prison. He resisted blandishments and intimidation alike. His way to liberty was easy, plain and clear. The door was not only held wide open, but he was urged, coaxed and goaded to pass through it. All he had to do was swear on the witness stand to statements that his dealings with certain men the prosecution set out to destroy were criminal. His hopes, fears, his family love and pride, his craving for freedom and his horror of wearing a felon's garb were played upon for months with insidious persistence and insistence. "Come through and walk out a free man," was the daily, hourly adjuration of the agents of Spreckels, Heney & Co.

It was a frightful temptation a horrible ordeal to undergo. Yet Ruef stood firm in his refusal to commit perjury, if his story be true, and swear innocent men into prison.

Heney says Ruef is various kinds of a villain and many kinds of a liar. Yet Heney is willing, nay eager, to use the testimony of this arch-villain and arch-liar to send men of high repute and standing to a convict's cell. He tried in vain to buy and coerce from this man whom he describes as an infinite scoundrel the testimony desired.

If Ruef is the man Heney pictures him why did he refuse to come through with the goods, to use the polite euphemism of the estimable Burns? Why did this sordid, lying, traitorous wretch prefer to call upon his head all the power and vindictive malice of the prosecution? Why did he take his liberty in his hand and burden himself with the enormous expense and corroding harassment of defending himself against more than a hundred indictments?

On all sides it is agreed that Ruef is now being prosecuted for his failure to give the testimony desired by the prosecution. Heney admits it. Langdon admits it. Burns and Professor Bunnell say the same thing. Ruef is now being relentlessly pursued, not for committing bribery, but for refusing to commit what he solemnly declares would have been perjury. If he is telling the truth and has been telling the truth, Heney and his coadjutors have been engaged in a most atrocious scheme to suborn wholesale perjury that innocent men might be ruined, disgraced and branded as felons. As black as Ruef has been painted, as bad as men believe him to be, it seems that he had conscience enough left to revolt against the infamous task set him. He would not blacken his soul with a crime so base, a wrong so foul.

That comic supplement of the State University, the irrepressible Boke, presided over the graft prosecution demonstration at the State University. Heney was the lion of the occasion and Boke the ass. He defended himself from the aspersions he cast upon the Appellate Court. No wonder, he circulated the letter of credit given Rudolph Spreckels by members of the university faculty and did all he could to work up the so-called mass meeting assembled to hear Heney air his rage at the A. Mutt caricatures. Of course the real director of the performance was Benjamin Ide Wheeler, who has wit enough to stay in the background while pulling the wires that make puppets like Boke dance and grimace. The meeting was, in short, a great Boke affair, but it is not calculated to enhance the usefulness and popularity of the State University nor make Boke a permanent feature of higher education at Berkeley or elsewhere.

Heney says he will prosecute his critics for criminal libel. This relieves us. We were afraid he might shoot them in the back.

THE WOULD-BE MASTERS OF THE PEOPLE

MAYOR SENDS INVITATION TO JACKIES OF BIG FLEET
Committee Preparing for Grand Welcome

At a meeting of the Oakland committee on the reception of the incoming battleship fleet, now anchored in Magdalena Bay, yesterday afternoon, Mayor Mott prepared and sent to Admiral Evans and his men an invitation to be the guests of the city. The invitation is as follows:

Oakland, March 9, 1908.
Rear Admiral R. D. Evans,
Magdalena Bay.

Dear Admiral: As mayor of the city of Oakland, and as chairman of the fleet reception committee, I take this means of extending to you, your officers and men a most cordial welcome to our shore. The people of Oakland want the honor of entertaining every man of the fleet as the occasion permits. We have been working in harmony with the San Francisco reception committee and there will be no conflict of dates in the entertainment arrangements.

I am just in receipt of a letter from my fellow townsman, Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, accepting an invitation to be the guest of the people of Oakland during a part of the ceremonies and I sincerely trust that you will also honor us with your presence on that occasion.

With best wishes to yourself, your officers and men, and trusting it will not be long before I have the pleasure of meeting all of you, I remain sincerely yours,
FRANK K. MOTT

Will Aid Plans.

Commandant T. S. Phelps of the Mare Island Navy Yard was extended an invitation by Edwin Meese, secretary of the committee, to consult with local citizens about preparations for the officers' entertainment while in Oakland. The invitation reads as follows:

Oakland, March 10, 1908.
Captain Thomas S. Phelps, Commandant
Mare Island Navy Yard.
Dear Sir: At the suggestion of Mayor Frank K. Mott and knowing that you have the welfare of Oakland at heart, we take the liberty of requesting your cooperation in plans for the entertainment of the officers of the fleet.

Should you come to Oakland within the next few days we would be highly pleased to have you name the date and time at which the committee on entertainment of officers could meet with you and receive the benefit of your valued advice. Thanking you in advance, I beg to remain yours respectfully,
EDWIN MESE, Secretary.

CRUISER BREAKS RECORD
FOR SECONDARY BATTERY

Many Gunners Make Ten Hits
Out of Ten Shots

SAN DIEGO, March 13.—Following the report that the cruiser Albatross, now at this port, had won the world's record for target practice with the five-inch guns of her main battery, the announcement is made that she has broken all records with the three-pounder guns of her secondary battery. Ten guns, with two pointers for each gun, were employed in the practice and the scores made in ten shots were:

No. 1—Sticks, six out of ten, 29 seconds; Currier, seven out of ten, 28 seconds.
No. 2—Akers, nine, 26 seconds; Carter, six, 27 seconds.
No. 3—Coopman, five, 30 seconds; Cunningham, eight, 27 seconds.
No. 4—Plaffer, five, 30 seconds; Arnold, six, 29 seconds.
No. 5—Byrne, nine, 27 seconds; Carson, eight, 29 seconds.
No. 6—Brewer, ten, 30 seconds; Hawkins, eight, 28 seconds.
No. 7—Canaday, seven, 29 seconds; Catlin, six, 28 seconds.
No. 8—Bishop, nine, 29 seconds; Sillik, ten, 22 seconds.
No. 9—Bunce, ten, 22 seconds; Willey, ten, 24 seconds.
No. 10—Hughes, ten, 28 seconds; Hanson, five, 29 seconds.

Commandant Phelps reply, received today, reads:

Mare Island, March 11, 1908.
Edwin Meese, Secretary Fleet Reception Committee, Oakland.

My Dear Mr. Meese: I thank you very much for your courteous note of yesterday and the honor you have done me in asking me to give advice to the committee on entertainment of officers of the fleet when next I come to Oakland.

As I am laid up now and have been for a month past with a severe attack of rheumatism, making it practically impossible for me to walk, I necessarily must decline to advise with the committee in Oakland. However, anything I can do at Mare Island I shall be most happy to do.

With kind regards, I am most sincerely yours,
T. S. PHELPS JR.

Want More Funds.

Chairman Bilger of the committee on entertainment of officers asked authority to have invitations to the officers to be the guests of the city printed and was accorded that authority. Individual invitations will be thus sent to each of the officers.

Chairman Gier of the finance committee reported what had been done by his committee and stated that it would be impossible to entertain the officers and enlisted men with less than $25,000 and that would not be sufficient to entertain in the manner a city of the size and commercial importance of Oakland should entertain.

Chairman Stearns of the publicity committee presented several designs for posters and was authorized to have a large number lithographed, showing a bear in a standing attitude clasping the hand of a sailor having the words "U. S. Navy on his cap." In the foreground is the city of Oakland, with the adjoining municipalities and in the bay the vessel of the white squadron, with San Francisco and the Golden Gate in the distance. It will be a very striking poster and much sought for by collectors.

Chairman English of the committee on the entertainment of enlisted men favored a big barbecue after the parade as it would be something different from what the men are usually accustomed to. He will, at the next meeting of the committee, report as to the expense of same.

STOCKHOLDERS TO SUE
HARRIMAN FOR $40,000,000

NEW YORK, March 13.—Charges that E. H. Harriman has caused a loss to the stockholders of the Union Pacific railroad of more than $40,000,000 by his stock speculations with the funds of that corporation were filed with the board of directors today. A formal demand was made that suit be brought against him and the other directors of the system who have been parties to his speculations to recover the sums lost to the company through these alleged illegal transactions. The papers were served at noon yesterday upon Alexander Miller, secretary of the Union Pacific railroad, by a representative of Leonard M. Wolstein, a lawyer of 49 Wall street on behalf of Lewis A. Stowe and Henry R. Buck of Hartford, Conn.; William A. Arnold of Williamst, Conn., and Albert C. Bates of East Granby, Conn., all stockholders of record.

TERSE PRESS COMMENT

Secretary Metcalf
to Represent

Roosevelt. As any man who has watched Roosevelt's course, read his speeches and studied his temperament from long-distance might have expected, the President has, quietly, but firmly, told the committee appointed in San Francisco to take charge of the series of entertainments planned at the reception of the fleet that he will not be a party to any of the little bickerings which prejudice and ambition nurture in a certain circle of politicians. He has not touched upon the point directly. He has simply notified the committee that neither himself nor Secretary Root can be present, but that Secretary of the Navy Metcalf is the proper official to be present to receive the fleet and he will be named as the President's personal representative.

That settles that matter. The only regrettable thing is that this State should suffer the humiliation of such a rebuke through the members of the committee appointed. So far as those men are concerned the attempt to vent personal spite against anyone by taking advantage of a position and temporary authority conferred upon them that they might uphold the honor and pride of the State the rebuff was needed. But just the same the people of the Bay Cities and of the State can but deplore the fact that any disagreeable element should be involved in the arrangements and that such petty small-souled men attained to such prominence that they could be considered in connection with a position on the committee—Watsonville Register.

PIER OF C. P. HUNTINGTON
Pacific Coast Steamship Company's Boats Will Not Call at Port Los Angeles.
SANTA MONICA, March 12.—It will be a matter of only a few days until Port Los Angeles, with its mammoth pier built by Collis P. Huntington at a cost of a million dollars, will be abandoned by the Southern Pacific as a commercial wharf. Coal in the bunkers is being transferred to Los Angeles for storage and movable equipment is being sent to San Pedro. Steamers of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company are to omit this pier as a port of call. Lumber dealers and others who receive shipments by water here have been notified that they can be accommodated no longer. The work of building this wharf was commenced in 1894.

PRETTY CLUBWOMAN Makes Living by BEGGING FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS

PITTSBURG, March 13.—Under the guise of charity, for nearly six years Miss L. Dermont Phillips, a remarkably pretty member of leading women's clubs, has been collecting subscriptions which it is alleged she has been using for her own support. She was arrested and when taken to a cell in Central police station broke down.

Miss Phillips has been under suspicion for five years, and complaints have been coming to the police against her at regular intervals, but she always managed to elude them. She has been procuring cash subscriptions for a publication in New York named "Charities and Commons," also for "Kindergarten Industrial Association." The police cannot find the latter organization.

Miss Phillips was arrested at the home of the Rev. J. A. D. Haupt, superintendent of the Intermissionary Society.

The clubwomen with whom Miss Phillips has been associated are shocked at her arrest.

RIBBON BREAKS THE MONOTONY OF GOWNS

To break the monotony of black lace evening gowns a frill of pompadour ribbon is being used, just under the lace at the throat.

This is a charming idea and one that will make black gowns appropriate as costumes for young women.

One French gown of black chiffon is entirely lined with pompadour silk, with a black background and the roses showing with elusive color through the outer folds of the chiffon, makes the dress beautiful in the extreme.

The same idea may be carried out for a young girl in white, using either thin crepe, China silk or chiffon cloth as outer covering. A wide belt of ribbon to match the lining makes a most girlish dress.

No more useful garment could be included in a trousseau for debutante or bride than a princess slip of pompadour silk. It is charming when worn under lingerie gowns in summer or under crepe and chiffon in winter.

Pompadour is also beautiful when lining an opera coat or cape. One of the newest evening capes is of pink panne velvet lined with flowered silk and bound all round by a band of velvet embroidered in pink and gold.

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT KEMP, M. D., A. B., A. M., LL. M., LL. B., PH. D., C. E., E. E., MECH. E., E. M., PHAR. CHEM., B. S., B. S., B. S., AND P. D. Q. STUDENT AT COLUMBIA FOR 27 YEARS

NEW YORK, Mar. 13.—William Cullen Bryant Kemp, LL. B., LL. M., A. B., has started in with his accustomed jaunty spirit to take the degree of Ph. D. at his old stamping ground, Columbia university. He may have five years in which to grasp political economy and kindred subjects that equip one for the degree of philosophy.

The Kemp, who is named after the poet who, as a mere boy, wrote "Thanatopsis," is an older element of contemporary history at the institution than many of the great buildings which cluster around the dome of the library building. Generations have flowed into the dormitories and classrooms and flowed out, fitted for endeavor in the world, but Kemp has stuck, and the years have seen him still a college boy, working for a degree, with his hair growing sparser and his form taking on gradually that roundness which falls to the well fed man in the forties.

In the registrar's office today the clerk smiled and said of course he knew Kemp. Kemp was there when the clerk was in linen pinafores at home and before he got in touch with the registration books. As far back as his means of research allowed he found the name of William Cullen Bryant Kemp recorded as out for a "LL. B." in 1882—that was fifteen years ago—and the newest book record has him down as out for a "Ph. D."

Wise, Fat and Forty.

In these maturer college days of Kemp—one report has it that he has been a student for twenty-seven years—he appears ever and anon in khaki knickerbockers and with a chrysanthemum in the lapel of his well fitted jacket. In the vesting of his khaki, his snug gowns are, he shares the bright, cheerful dormitory life of students when he is not biding away for exams, which, it is said, he dreads with all the opposition of the mind and heart a freshman suffers.

The mystery of Kemp's student decades is no longer a mystery. There is hardly a boy at the university who has not heard it told, and told it in turn. It is to the effect that Kemp, when a youth, displayed an antipathy to the regular course of study which was pronounced that he would not be ready on any examination day, or rather enough book learning to make even a fair showing along with the most diffident students.

To remedy this, Kemp, the boy, was provided for in the will of a relative, who, wise in his day and generation, was given to understanding human nature. The relative provided an income for Kemp of $2500 a year, the same to be paid to him as long as he remained in Columbia, and to cease when he left the university. Kemp was in no danger of brain fever from overwork at the time this arrangement was first made, but it is said he managed thereafter to remain on the college register as a student and draw the first year's money coming to him.

More Titles Than Edward VII.

With "Ph. D." the endowed student will have used up the last scholarly degree offered by Columbia, but may go back for post-graduate courses and get a bachelor of science degree in two classes. There will be mining, electrical engineering, civil engineering, architecture, pharmaceutical chemistry, and mechanical engineering, but that will be the end. He will either leave the college without an income or be removed at the head of a procession of carriages.

Should the faculty take no action for the relief of Student Kemp about twenty years from now, when the last degree is tacked to his name, they will behold him coast drift without a cent—William Cullen Bryant Kemp, M. ## Worldly Women: English Lady Is CHARMING Playwright

LONDON, Mar. 13.—The Princess of Wales was present at a really notable matinee performance at the Lyric Theatre in aid of the Victoria Home for Invalid Children at Margate, when Miss Muriel Wilson and Charles Hawtrey repeated the performance of "Time is Money."

LADY BELL,
Well-known Author and Political Hostess.

which was played by them at Chatsworth.

Lady Bell, who is the author of this witty little piece, occupies a really notable position in the most intelligent and cultivated section of society. The daughter of the late Sir Joseph Olliffe, the well-known Paris doctor, and the sister-in-law of Sir Frank Lascelles, the British Ambassador in Berlin, she has a great reputation as a brilliant conversationalist, while to a wider circle she is known for her charming plays, some in English and some in French. One of these, "Lindisfarne," was produced by Coquelin at the Royalty. Her marriage to Sir Hugh Bell, the great north country ironmaster, who is Lord-Lieutenant of the North Riding, brought her in contact with social problems connected with labor and housing.

Last year she published a remarkable study of how the ironworkers live, under the title of "At the Works," while her "Conversational Openings" shows her in the very different role of a shrewd and witty observer of social humours. Her versatility is, indeed, astonishing; she also finds time to play her part as a notable political hostess in the camp of the Free Traders.

SOCIETY AS SHE IS DID IN N. Y.

Every now and then a stand-up supper is served at a dance. This is the abomination of desolation spoken of by the prophet Daniel, says the Metropolitan Magazine in a satire on society.

Should a lady ask you at such an entertainment to get her some supper, push your way through the mob and hurl yourself like a flying wedge at the trough where the comestibles are exhibited.

Once arrived on the scene of carnage, you can consume a cup of bouillabaisse, some sandwiches a little fllet, some dry champagne, some oysters, and a plate of salad, an ice and a cup of coffee. After this, if your hunger has been satisfied, take a morsel of gelatine, a dolly, and a lady-finger, place them on a plate and force yourself through the compact lines of angry, feeding, dancing men, until you appear before your fair partner, declaring that you did your best, and that the rest of the provisions had disappeared.

While she is thanking you, slip away to the smoking-room and send the man in attendance there for a bottle of your favorite champagne. While he has gone you may busy yourself by selecting a dozen or more of the best cigars, so as to be sure to have something to smoke on the way home.

At the theater it is smart to "toast the show." Do not be afraid of wounding the feelings of your host and hostess. It is an even chance that they are more bored than you. If the actors seem to object to your conversation or show annoyance or impatience, try to remember that they are not society people, and are ignorant of all little graceful social conventions.

On leaving the opera with the ladies, do not go into the side corridor with them, or you will surely be forced to look out for their carriage, a tedious and bothersome occupation. The wisest thing to do is to say that you have an appointment, and merge yourself with the rabble who are leaving by the front door, leaving the ladies in the drafty side entrance, where their footman will sooner or later discover them.

Bachelors no longer leave cards. It is considered out of the question. After dinner a good many times at a house, a man may give a butler two dollars and his card. In return the butler will, during the next afternoon, discreetly slip the card upon the trap in the hall while the lady of the house is out driving.

If you are literally forced to pay a call, merely ask the butler if the ladies are at home. Should he say "yes," explain to him that you have mistaken the house, and that you are looking for the residence of another lady. Slip him a dollar and retire noiselessly down the steps.

INDIA PAYS WOMAN LAWYER $250 A MONTH

The public commendation carries with it an increase of salary from $64 to $250 a month.

No fiction story of a strenuous life has more alleged facts than the actual hardships endured by Alice Nielson, the prima donna soprano of the San Carlo Opera Company.

Nineteen hours' work, day in and day out, is her task, leaving less than 5 hours for sleep.

"From the time I first appeared in grand opera in Italy I have done little else but work, work hard," said Miss Nielson in recounting her daily routine. "My maid calls me every day, week day, Sunday or holiday, at 7:15 a. m., and from that time on until I retire at 2:30 a. m. I do not get a moment's rest."

"I spend very little time in dressing in the morning and only the required few moments for my breakfast, because at 8 a. m. the maestro, the music teacher who comes in, comes with the score of the role in which I am to appear. I vocalize until 9 a. m., and that is in itself an ordinary day's labor which would wear out an average woman in a month.

"From 10 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. I study harmony and read works and reference books on opera. At 11:30 my maid dresses me for lunch, which I usually take in the public dining room in the hotel in which I am staying. ## WOMEN CAN'T STAY SINGLE AT PANAMA Nor Can They Spend Their Hus- bands' Incomes—Dreadful!

NEW YORK, March 13.—Panama is a place where leap year is not needed, Helen Varick Roswell, who organized the Women's clubs on the isthmus, at the instances of the government, told the members of the Portia club yesterday. "Cupid is tremendously overworked here," said Miss Roswell. "It is impossible to keep a woman single. At one of the hospitals they told me they had lost seventeen nurses by matrimony from April to June, and that word to the States that they positively would not take young nurses, and strictly plain ones must be sent. The nurses become engaged to the men returning to Panama on the way down on the steamers."

"Everything is provided for married people—quarters, house, furniture, drinking water, and there is nothing to get but food and clothing. A wife is a very comfortable adjunct to a man's life, and the bachelor quarters are being constantly depleted. A man in Panama gets about twice the money that he would here for the same work, and there is no way to spend this money. Think what a reason it is for the men to get married. It is a very good place to save."

"To Fit the Crime.

"I reckon I'm guilty, y' honor," snuffed the leathery faced old vagabond who had been run in for drunkenness and general worthlessness, "but it ain't my fault."

"What's the fault is it?" inquired the police justice.

"It's the fault of my brother-in-law an' my sister-in-law. They won't let me live with 'em any more. When a feller's in-laws goes back on 'im, y'r honor, he can't help bein' a outlaw."

"Six months in the workhouse," roared the police justice.

"Diana of the Dobsons" Pleases Bachelor Girls

The bachelor girls of London are all delighted at the achievement of Miss Cicely Hamilton, a young actress, who, in her spare moments, has written a plan which Miss Lena Ashwell will produce at the Kingsway Theater. For many years Miss Hamilton and her sister have lived alone in London, cheering one another through good luck and bad—and there has been plenty of the latter, for a full measure of disappointments and hardship have fallen to their lot—and now well-deserved success is promised. The new play, which is entitled "Diana of the Dobsons," is a study of the artistic temperament amidst contrasted conditions—one of the scenes being a shop-girl scene. The play, which was written in the evenings and at odd moments, when Miss Hamilton was "resting"—in other words, out of work—was accepted within a week of the time it was sent in to Miss Lena Ashwell—Till-Bits.

Which Marred Beauty, Face or Accident

BROOKLYN, Mar. 13.—Miss Mary McCreery, 19 years old, secured a verdict for $3000 in the Supreme Court as compensation for injury to her face, which it is alleged, has destroyed her beauty. The verdict was directed jointly against the Brooklyn Heights Railroad and the Triest Construction Company. Miss McCreery was in a car December 20, 1906, when it was struck by a heavy laborer taking at noon 1 take at midnight. I feel that my body needs nourishment. In plain language, I am hungry and I need food. I drive back to my hotel with my maid, who takes off my wraps and I enter the public dining room with my companions and enjoy a hearty meal.

"At 1 a. m. I return to my rooms, read some current literature, newspapers and musical periodicals until 2 a. m., when I take a cold bath, which seems to quiet my nerves and invigorates my body, and I retire feeling that I have done a good day's work."

IN SOCIETY

Miss Ethel Bryant, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryant, became the bride of Dr. G. H. Smith at a pretty wedding celebrated Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Sausalito.

The house decorations were an artistic arrangement of fruit blossoms and spring flowers. In the parlors where the ceremony was performed the adornment was an effective harmony of pink with fruit blossoms, ribbons and knots of pale pink wedding tulle. In a floral bower of pink and white the marriage service was read by the Rev. George Maxwell. Only relatives were given the interesting ceremony and the elaborate wedding breakfast which followed. The bride's table was decorated with clusters of white carnations and tulle streamers to each place. Covers were laid for sixteen guests.

The bride wore a beautiful princess gown of pink silk embellished with white chiffon and rare lace. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, but did not wear the conventional veil. There were no attendants for either bride or groom.

After a honeymoon trip to be spent in Southern California the couple will reside in Sausalito, where Dr. Smith is engaged in the practice of his profession. The bride is an attractive girl with a host of friends in the bay cities and is a relative of L. C. Morehouse, prominent in the business world.

the pieces to a washboard. The joke was apparent in a moment, for the hostess had planned a washerwoman's afternoon, and the ladies who assisted her in receiving were dressed for the part in nondescript costumes that harmonized with that of the hostess.

Amusing features in keeping with the idea entered into the details of decoration and menu, and the club had a very jolly afternoon.

The prizes for the game went as follows: Mrs. W. T. Morton, first; Mrs. T. E. McShane, second; Mrs. M. Klink, third, and Mrs. W. J. Barrett, consolation prize.

The party for the afternoon was made up of Mrs. W. J. Barrett, Mrs. D. V. Bell, Mrs. Charles Flowergutter, Mrs. T. E. McShane, Mrs. A. Martin, Mrs. W. T. Morton, Mrs. M. Klink, Mrs. V. Remmer, Mrs. S. Rogers, Mrs. E. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. H. Young.

Mrs. Sara Reamer as chairman of Oakland Club's Irish day acquitted herself in her usual charming and witty manner. Mrs. Albert Theberge sang "The Last Rose of Summer" and "Killarney," and Walter De Leon, accompanied by Mrs. E. N. De Leon, rendered two solos, "A Rambling Irishman" and "The Wearing of the Green."

Among those who spoke were Mrs. Thomas Hogan, whose subject was "Irish Heraldry"; Miss Mary Moran, "The Book of Kells"; Mrs. Sara Watkins, history; Mrs. Nellie Nelson, Dublin; Mrs. M. T. The decorations were effective and appropriate and many of the club members were green but the stars and stripes were in a prominent place. Mrs. Nora Kyle loaned for the occasion pictures of Irish heroes, and a green silk banner. Refreshments and a social hour completed a delightful afternoon.

WOMEN DRINK IN LOUVRE, ASSERTS CHIEF OF POLICE

Saloon Men on Carpet Before the Council

Chief of Police Wilson reported to the license committee of the City Council last night that at the Louvre saloon, in the basement at the southeast corner of Broadway and Fourteenth street, liquor was sold to men and women in boxes without food, in violation of the municipal ordinance.

"My attention was first called to this," the chief said, "about two months ago, by a man who told me his daughter was there with a man. We went into the Louvre and found her in a box drinking beer with a man. There was no food on the table. I induced her to go home with her father."

"At that time I inspected the place and found that the same thing was being done in the other boxes. I have made eight such visits in all, and only once did I see any evidence of any food having been served."

Sergeant of Police Burns corroborated Chief Wilson's statement.

Proprietors Explain.

Harry Kear and W. C. Blakeley, proprietors of the Louvre, appeared before the committee in answer to a citation. They said they had not been in actual control of the place for three months and did not know what went on there.

Justice of the Peace Geary, representing them, said that Kern and Blakeley had quarreled and left the management of the Louvre to a third person. Geary asked for a continuance of the matter for two weeks, saying that the place would be sold by that time. It was now rented at a monthly rental of $625, he declared, which was secured by a bond of $5000. This money would be lost, he said, if the license was revoked.

On this showing the continuance was granted, on the condition that the law be obeyed in the meantime.

License Peddling Taboo.

The license committee put its foot down on the "peddling of liquor licenses," as it was termed by Councilmen, in a discussion that took place over the transfer of the license of the Oyster Leaf Grotto, at 470 Ninth street.

The transfer was not allowed, on the showing that Ben B. Staudemeyer, who asked for it, had offered to pay $150 for the license. Staudemeyer admitted this to the committee.

"I am opposed to this peddling of licenses," said Councilman Jackson.

"You fellows are getting just what's coming to you," retorted Councilman Stackler. "You put a limit on the number of saloons and peddling of licenses will certainly be attempted."

The license of the Oyster Leaf Grotto was revoked because of the fact that it was not being used.

The following liquor licenses were granted:

Old applications (renewals)—James Corley, 1409 San Pablo avenue; N. Campbell, 950 Fifth street; Wm. Reichold, 413

Fourteenth street; Silva & Nunes, 674 Broadway; T. N. Whitehead, 1542 Adeline street. Transfer location (old applications)—E. J. ## S.S.S. CURES S.S.S. CHRONIC ULCERS

Whenever a sore or ulcer refuses to heal it is because the blood is infected with poisonous germs or some old blood taint which corrupts and pollutes the circulation. Nothing is more trying than a non-healing, chronic old ulcer. The very fact that it resists all external applications, and ordinary treatments, is good reason for alarm, for the same germ which produces cancerous ulcers is back of every old sore, and especially is this true if the trouble be from any inherited taint. Surface treatment cannot reach the trouble—the blood is at fault and must be purified before a cure can be hoped for. In S. S. S. will be found a remedy for sores and ulcers of every kind. It is a perfect blood purifier—one that goes directly into the circulation and promptly cleanses it of all impurities, poisons and taints. The ulcer can never heal while the blood discharges into it the noxious matter with which it is infected, but when S. S. S. has rid the blood of this cause and freshened and built up the circulation the sore will heal naturally, and of its own accord. S. S. S. begins at the bottom and heals the place as it should be healed and makes a permanent and lasting cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any special medical advice desired will be sent free to all who write.

Get rid of the Lard Habit

Cottolene makes pies and pastry digestible; it makes crisp, flaky pie-crust—the kind that will melt in your mouth rather than stick in the pit of your stomach.

There is no getting away from the fact that lard is the fat of the hog. There was a time in the olden days when lard was made from a particular part of the hog, the selected part—it was called the "leaf"—that is, the peritoneum; but, with the growth of the industry, lard is now thrown on the market made from fat from all portions of the hog, and lard, today, is not as good as the lard of years ago—in fact it is even more indigestible and more unhealthy.

Cottolene is a cleanly, vegetable product made from pure, refined cotton seed oil. It makes food palatable, digestible and healthful.

Cottolene is the purest and best shortening. It is not a substitute for lard, but an improvement upon lard or any other shortening. When you accept a substitute for Cottolene you are not getting your money's worth. Cottolene is preferable in more ways than one—in purity, results and healthfulness.

Mrs. John Martin Is to Plead "Brain Storm"

'EMOTIONAL INSANITY,' IT IS SAID, IS TO BE THE PRISONER'S DEFENSE
Habeas Corpus Proceedings Also Rumored

It was declared about police headquarters this morning that provided Mrs. Martin, under indictment for dynamiting the home of Superior Judge Ogden, finds that the police have gathered an overwhelming mass of evidence against her, she will fall back on the plea of temporary emotional insanity as a defense when she faces trial on the felony charge in the Superior Court. At this time she is holding out strong against the police in their efforts to get her to make damaging admissions against herself, but so far as can be learned those who have put Mrs. Martin through a severe examination have been unable to get any statement from her tending to prove from her own lips that "Baby" John's startling confession concerning her is the truth.

Carefully Guarded.

If Mrs. Martin were a $10,000 prize beauty in danger of being kidnaped, she could not be more carefully guarded and kept from outside influences than she is now. Upon her arrival at police headquarters Wednesday night she was at once placed in close confinement. Yesterday morning she was taken into Captain of Detectives Petersen's office and closely questioned, but without avail. No one was allowed to see her. Today there was the same order of affairs.

Is Reticent.

For hours today Mrs. Martin was again closed up with Captain Petersen and was submitted to even a more rigid examination than on the day before. She is in a peevish mood and is extremely hard to handle. She cannot be coerced into saying anything concerning the case. She insists that she is the victim of "Baby" John, who, she says, is "light in the head" and who has gained his liberty at the cost of her own.

It was intimated today that an attempt was to be made by local attorneys to secure Mrs. Martin's release on a writ of habeas corpus, it being held that she is being detained in the city prison when in fact she should be in the county jail as a county prisoner.

To Ask Release.

This ground is taken for the reason that Mrs. Martin was indicted by a county grand jury and was brought from an outside county, thus being out of the jurisdiction of the city police. The police, however, say that they are legally entitled to possession of the notorious woman as they are acting as her custodians for the district attorney of the county and as they have the case in hand, it is necessary that the woman be confined in the city prison where she can be reached when wanted.

So far as can be learned there are no new developments in the case today. The police will neither confirm or deny the report that Mrs. Martin is planning to plead temporary insanity when brought up for trial.

Judge Wells of Contra Costa county, will probably try Mrs. Martin. He has been asked already to preside at her arraignment on the charge of dynamiting the home of Judge Ogden, and has signified his intention to do so, and is expected to consent also to be presiding judge at the trial. Nearly all the Superior judges of Alameda county have had personal experience with Mrs. Martin, and in order that no charge of prejudice in conducting the trial may be made, they will not sit in the trial.

The prosecution of Mrs. Martin will probably be conducted by Chief Deputy District Attorney W. H. Donohue, although District Attorney Brown has not yet formally assigned the case to any of his deputies. Donohue was assigned to the preliminary work in connection with the case, however, journeying to Waverlyville with Detective Hodges, and is familiar with the evidence.

AUSTRALIA TO BE VISITED BY FLEET

Ships to Touch at Hawaii, Samoa and Philippines Before Returning.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.—Admiral Evans' battleship fleet, after leaving San Francisco, will visit Hawaii, Samoa and the Philippines before returning to New York by way of the Suez Canal.

Secretary Metcalf announced the movements of the fleet after the cabinet meeting today. It will leave San Francisco in July and touch at Hawaii for coal. The ships will then go to Samoa, thence to Australia. They will stop at Melbourne and Sydney, the invitation of the Australian government to visit that country having been accepted. The fleet will then proceed to Manila, where it will be met by a more cordial one from the British Ambassador, N. Bryce.

The vessels will then go to Manila, and while in the Philippines the fleet will practice will be held. Thence they will return to the United States by Suez Canal, stopping only for coal.

According to the present plan the entire fleet will go up to Puget Sound, and some of the ships may be sent to Vancouver and return to San Francisco before departing for home.

Admiral Evans will retire in August by operation of law. Secretary Metcalf said that no decision had yet been arrived at as to who would succeed him in command of the fleet on its voyage homeward.

The following congratulatory telegram, signed by Secretary Metcalf, was today sent to Rear Admiral Evans:

"The department congratulates you and the men and officers of the Atlantic fleet on the termination of the voyage to the Pacific in exact accordance with the itinerary and also upon the efficiency of the ships and the time of the arrival at Magdalena Bay."

Relief Sails for South.

MARE ISLAND.—The hospital ship, Relief, under command of Surgeon Chas. F. Stokes, U. S. N., sailed from Mare Island this morning for Magdalena Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Rear Admiral Swinburne's flagship, Charleston, accompanied by the cruisers Milwaukee and St. Louis arrived here this morning from Magdalena Bay. The destroyer Perry arrived last night. The destroyer Preble is expected to reach port tonight.

Men to Be Given Week's Board for One Day's Work for City.

At a meeting this morning between the committee of unemployed and the city's committee, composed of Mayor Mott, Edwin Stearns of the Chamber of Commerce, Wilber Walker of the Police, C. W. Peck, Mrs. A. Whitney, secretary of the Associated Charities, and Major Hamilton of the Salvation army, satisfactory arrangements were made whereby laborers "out of work" will be given a week's board for one day's work.

By this scheme union prices are not cut and opportunities are afforded the unemployed during the balance of the week to seek steady jobs.

Tomorrow several of the unemployed will be sent to Bushrod park, and if possible the city will hire the balance at some thing or other. The city's committee is trying to raise a fund so laborers can be hired two days and have the second one paid in cash, thus enabling the unemployed to buy necessary clothing and enabling them to find out of town jobs. A debt of $600 has already been incurred by the committee, which the members think can soon be wiped out, if citizens will co-operate in the relief work.

NEGLECTED WIFE DIES AT HOSPITAL

Succumbs After Operation—Husband in Jail on Battery Charge She Preferred.

Mrs. Paul Metcalf, wife of a painter living in Sixteenth street, whose husband is in the City Prison on a charge of beating her, died this morning at the Roosevelt Hospital following an operation for appendicitis. No funeral arrangements have been made, but friends will take charge of the remains.

Some weeks ago Mrs. Metcalf appeared at police headquarters and swore to a warrant for the arrest of her husband on a charge of battery. She presented a pitiful appearance, having been badly beaten and being afflicted with rheumatism as well. She complained that her husband had not only struck and cursed her, but had taken her few small articles of jewelry to pawn for money with which to buy liquor. Metcalf's case was called recently in the Police Court, but was continued, awaiting the testimony of his wife against him. Her death will probably result in the charge against him being dismissed, the dead woman having been the only witness for the prosecution.

BAY PIRATES ARE WANTED BY THE POLICE

Schooner in Estuary Stripped of Dead Lights—Other Thefts Reported.

Oakland detectives are in search of a gang of bay pirates who have committed a number of bold thefts in the recent past, their latest crime being the theft of a number of dead lights made of brass and each weighing thirty pounds from the schooner Parkersburg, moored at Whitehawk's wharf, near Shafter and Canal streets. A quantity of rope of various sizes was also stolen from the craft. The theft was reported by T. P. H. Whitelaw, of 1837 Clinton avenue, Alameda.

Antonio Fredergand of 862 Washington street was robbed last night of $18 in gold by a newly made acquaintance who was prevailed upon Fredergand to pass the night with him in a down town lodging house. When Fredergand woke up this morning both the man and his money were gone.

Jack Turner and L. Carlson of 616 Twelfth street, report that a burglar entered their room last night and stole a quantity of clothing, three razors and other articles.

Charles Vornholt of 1633 Adeline street reports the loss of a quantity of silverware which was being taken to San Francisco from his home. It is thought by the police that the articles have been delivered at the wrong address by mistake.

J. Johnson of 542 Twentieth street reports the theft of carpenter's tools valued at $10.

TAKE TESTIMONY IN BULLETIN "FAKE" SUIT

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The first witness put on the stand today in the Older-Crothers "fake" suit against W. S. Tevis was Albert J. Porter, a newspaper man, who testified to a meeting which was held in Hamilton Hall last December, at which John B. Bennett was the chief speaker. Porter testified that Bennett had accused the Spring Valley Water Company of being in league with the prosecution, and said that George Keane, lately Lucie's attorney, but at that time clerk of the Board of Supervisors, had brought up proofs of a pamphlet in connection with the same matter.

After Porter had been excused Herold P. Livermore, who is interested in water rights on the American river, was put on the stand and questioned by Attorney Sullivan in regard to the properties of the Bay Cities Water Company. Sullivan's purpose was to prove that there were obstacles to prevent the Bay Cities Water Company from controlling the water right which they claimed to possess in that section. He explained that the National Water and Mining Company had some rights which he though conflicted with those of the Bay Cities Water Company.

GIVES STATEMENT AS TO BUCKETSHOP PROSECUTION

Secretary Straus Says President Wants Certain Bill Investigated.

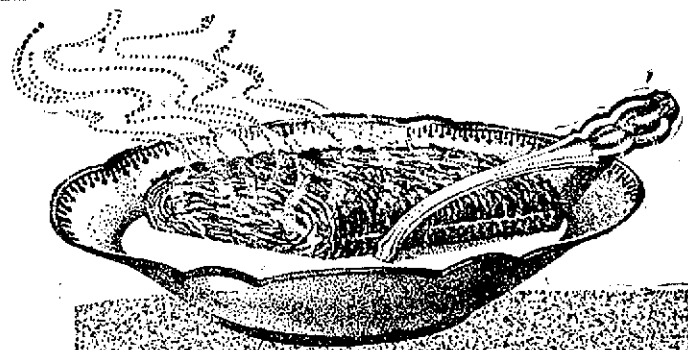

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.—To correct any misapprehension that may exist throughout the circulation of erroneous reports concerning the investigation which Commissioner of Corporations Smith is making into laws affecting bucket shop operations, Secretary Straus, of the department of Commerce and Labor today issued the following statement:

"Secretary Straus states in regard to the matter of bucket shops that the President has simply referred the subject to this department with the request to have Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of Corporations examine certain bills aimed at bucket shops and to report his views upon the general subject. The President has not ordered any investigation of stock exchanges and Smith has been instructed to use his own judgment in reporting on the subject and getting the facts that the President desires."

A GOOD BREAKFAST FOR

Start the day right by eating a breakfast that gives the greatest amount of mental and physical strength with the least tax upon the digestion. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with a pint of hot milk will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work—and the cost is about five cents.

For breakfast heat the Biscuit in oven, pour milk over it (hot milk in winter) and add a little cream. If you like the Biscuit for breakfast you will like toasted RISCUT (the Shredded Wheat wafer) for luncheon or any meal with butter, cheese or marmalade. At your grocers.

LIBERTY LEAGUE TO FIGHT AGAINST PROHIBITIONISTS

Bitter Warfare All Over Nation Promised

CHICAGO, March 13. — The Liberty League, organized and backed by the liquor interests, is in readiness to make a desperate effort to annihilate the anti-saloon league and to turn back the prohibition wave sweeping over the South. An announcement is made today of the completion of the organization of the league and the claim is made for it that since October a general body has been organized in every station in the Union. Its membership in Illinois is said to include 200,000 men.

The headquarters of the organization is in Chicago and sub-headquarters are maintained in New York, Atlanta, Ga., Louisville, Ky., St. Louis, Denver, Seattle and San Francisco.

A Secret Body.

The body is secret and the names of its officers are guarded with great care. The States are organized by local lodges or cells, in which the membership is oath bound as to policies and methods of procedure.

It is the purpose of the Illinois League to hold a State convention in June or July, pass upon candidates for State officers and for the legislature, prior to the direct primary on August 8. Candidates will meet with favor in direct proportions as they favor the platform of the league.

The league's platform, it is declared, will resort to no subterfuge in stating its policies. It is in the open. It is declared, to fight prohibition in State and nation and if the plans are carried on it will take a strong part in the Presidential canvass.

Sanitary Market Law Approved in Committee

The ordinance regulating sanitary conditions in markets, shops, creameries, grocery and provision stores, bakeries, confectionery stores and manufactories, restaurants, boarding-houses, hotels, canneries, slaughter houses, meat, milk and market wagons, places where oysters or other shell fish are prepared for food and places where fowl are killed and prepared for sale or storage, was approved last night by the ordinance and judiciary committee of the council.

The ordinance provides for a maximum penalty of a $250 fine or 125 days in the city prison.

Hotel Managed by Dwarfs. — One of the strangest hotel staffs is that at White Plains, in New York State. The hotel is run by dwarfs. The proprietor is Admiral Dot, a well-known character in the States. He is thirty-two years old and 2 1/2 feet high. His wife is reputed to be the prettiest dwarf in the world, and actively assists him in the business. She is 31 inches high. The dining room head waiter is short of his mistress' height by one inch. They all speak English and German.

ANAEMIA OR POOR BLOOD

Don't Wait Too Long to Correct It—As It Often Leads to Something Worse.

Anaemia is a defective state of the blood in which there is a lack either in quantity or quality of the little red corpuscles.

It may result from any cause that serves to deplete the general system and is recognized by a pale and haggard face—colorless lips, poor circulation and short breath, and the system is at such a low ebb that more serious diseases are easily contracted.

Anaemic people should eat plenty of fruit, eggs, milk, meat, vegetables, good butter and cream and whole wheat bread, and as for a medicine nothing excels our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, which is made by a scientific extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, combined with peptonate-of-iron, which is a powerful constituent for the blood, all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil. Vinol is not a patent medicine, you know what you are taking as all it contains is named on the label.

Any anaemic or run-down person in Oakland who will follow the above suggestions is sure to be restored to health and strength in a short time. We will return your money if Vinol fails to give satisfaction. The Owl Drug Company, Oakland, Cal.

MAMMOTH WATER SYSTEM PLANNED FOR THIS COUNTY

People's Company Now Has Engineers at Work on Gigantic Project to Cost $10,000,000.

This city is to have a water system built on a mammoth scale and the problem is now being worked out so quietly that but few know of it. A large force of engineers and assistants has been working for a year perfecting the plans. It is to be built by the People's Water Company. The system, which will require four years to build and the estimated cost of which will be $10,000,000, has been made necessary by the doubling of the population of Oakland and environs. In the district to be covered by the greater system, extending from Richmond on the north to Alvarado on the south, a distance of thirty-eight miles, the population before the San Francisco fire was about 200,000. The immediate effect of the disaster was to swell the number of inhabitants to more than 300,000. The People's Water Company, which is building the greater plant, then had a system adequate for the needs of the former population, with a margin for future growth.

PLANS AND COST OF BIG WATER SYSTEM

Storage capacity increased from 5,250,000 to 29,000,000 gallons.

Forty-two miles of new mains.

Twenty-two thousand acres additional lands acquired.

Three pumping stations; capacity 32,000,000 gallons daily.

Three modern filter plants, aggregate capacity of 40,000,000 gallons daily.

Covered distributing reservoir in the city, capacity of 150,000,000 gallons.

Three great dams, three large est ranging from 100 to 125 feet in height.

Five tunnels, aggregating nine miles in length.

Estimated minimum cost of plant and real estate, $10,000,000.

mediate effect of the disaster was to swell the number of inhabitants to more than 300,000. The People's Water Company, which is building the greater plant, then had a system adequate for the needs of the former population, with a margin for future growth.

Plans Laid Out.

Since that time plans have been worked out by Chief Engineer Arthur L. Adams and a corps of assistants for a project greater than any ever carried out west of the larger Eastern cities. The plans have been matured with the intention of expending $1,500,000 annually on construction until the plant is finished.

Construction has already begun on a deep well supply beyond Richmond. Work has been under way for nearly a year on a pumping station and will be completed within a few months. The full equipment for driving one of the largest tunnels is on the ground and is being installed, and the building of a pumping station on Twenty-fourth avenue, in East Oakland, the second largest in the West, is under way.

The enterprise involves the building of a network of tunnels and pipe lines covering a new drainage area of 308 square miles and requiring the acquisition of 22,000 acres of real estate holdings.

To Store Flood Waters.

The water supplies are to be secured by storing the flood waters of San Leandro creek, already utilized in parks; Crow, Bollinger, Cull and Las Trampas creeks, on the south, and San Pablo and Pinole creeks on the north. The latter streams will be developed as follows: The upper waters of Bollinger creek will be diverted by a dam, conduits and tunnels into the drainage of Crow creek. The two combined will thence be diverted by means of a tunnel into San Leandro creek just above Lake Chabot. Nearly midway of this tunnel the waters of Cull creek will also be received through a shaft. The upper waters of Las Trampas creek will be diverted into an upper tributary of San Leandro creek.

New Drainage.

By these various diversions more than twenty square miles of new tributary drainage will be added to San Leandro creek. On this stream, at a point about four and a half miles above Lake Chabot, is to be constructed a large and beautiful lake holding sixteen and three-fourths billion gallons, having an area of 1100 acres, at an elevation of 475 feet above sea level, and a depth of 185 feet. The water from this lake in part, as required, will be allowed to flow down into Lake Chabot and thence, by the existing route, into Oakland; and in part will be taken through a long tunnel coming through the hills back of Elmhurst, at an elevation somewhat in excess of 300 feet above sea level; thence by suitable

INSANE ORGIES OF THAW AWFUL, THEY SAY

Friends of Evelyn Claim She Will Make Startling Revelations.

PITTSBURG, March 13. — Friends of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw declare that should her husband, Harry Kendall Thaw, persist in his determination to oppose her suit for divorce, that she will make startling revelations concerning Thaw which would out-rival the orgies of the famous Stanford White tower.

Strangest of all the disclosures made since Mrs. Thaw began suit for the annulment of her marriage to Thaw is the declaration that within a month after her wedding she discovered that he was insane.

At that time she announced her intention of applying for a divorce on the ground that he was crazy before the ceremony and that all members of the Thaw family knew it when they allowed her to wed him. Evelyn Thaw knew nothing about these escapades at the time, but immediately after her marriage Thaw now and then dropped remarks that opened her eyes.

She concluded that no man in his right mind could think of such affairs, much less participate in them; hence her conclusion that Thaw was insane. Evelyn Thaw says she is prepared to prove all this should occasion require.

conduits through the higher regions of Oakland into the Claremont reservoir in Berkeley.

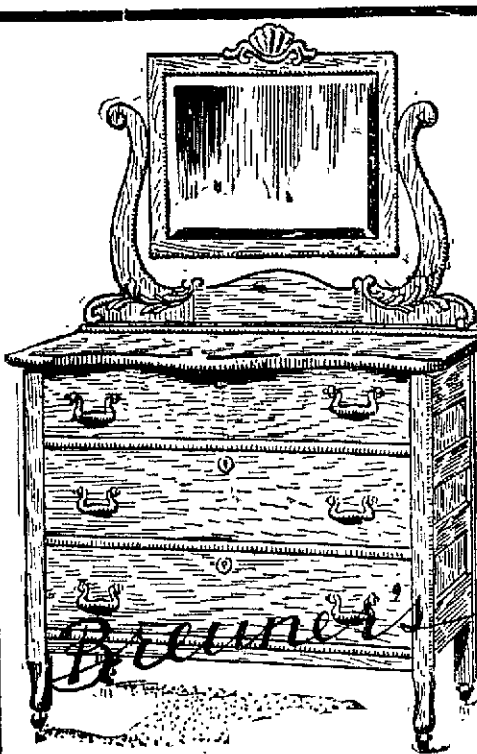

Storage Reservoirs.

Storage reservoirs are to be created on San Pablo and Pinole creeks, having net effective capacities respectively of two and three-tenths and five and one-tenth billions of gallons; superficial areas of 232 and 470 acres; elevations above sea level of 262 and 274 feet and depths of 102 and 114 feet each respectively.

The reservoirs will be interconnected by a tunnel and pipe line, and the waters of both taken through another long tunnel leading directly through the intervening hills to a point in North Berkeley near what is known as To Filter Water.

At Lake Chabot, in the foothills above Melrose and at the tunnel outlet in North Berkeley, will be built three filtration plants. All water, save that from underground sources, is to be filtered after the most approved methods.

That water may be distributed in Oakland under increased pressure, the supplies drawn from Lake Chabot and Alvarado wells are to be pumped.

For this purpose a pumping station of as great capacity as any of similar character west of the Missouri river is being built on Twenty-fourth avenue, in East Oakland. The water will be forced to the central reservoir, a distributing reservoir to be built in East Oakland at an elevation of 198 feet above sea level, with a capacity of 150 millions of gallons.

New Pump Station.

This reservoir and the clear water basin at the filtration plant in North Berkeley will have the same elevation, and by interconnection of several lines of large mains these reservoirs will jointly control the pressure in the two lower zones, embracing all areas below elevation 140.

The water drawn from Upper San Leandro lake will afford gravity service to higher elevations up to about 350.

Higher areas in Berkeley up to about 450 will be supplied by a new pumping station, which will take water from the lower zone and boost it to the Berryman reservoir. High territory elsewhere will be supplied from the existing small gravity sources in the hills.

A supply of about 2,000,000 gallons daily has been developed beyond Richmond from deep wells. A pumping station and pipe line for conducting it into Berkeley is being constructed.

The long and expensive 24-inch force main will become a part of the permanent plant by having the direction of the flow reversed and carrying filtered water from Berkeley to Richmond and all intermediate territory.

CREDITORS' SALE

AN OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME

I am putting forward every effort in order to give the proper attention to the multitudes of people which I am expecting tomorrow, judging from the response of the people of Oakland and vicinity in the past, I am confident that they are realizing the magnitude of this sale, and as the sale is drawing to its close, I am cutting the prices which everyone will concede were very low, still lower, in order to satisfy the creditors' demand for money at once, and as the creditors are desirous of obtaining part of their loss only, these values can only be appreciated on examination.
